

Ms. A. 9. 2. 26. 37A

I am most desirous in Mr. E. P. Smith's book on Woman's Rights to highly praise in the North American Review of August the return of my friends in the subject which is recommended I should be much obliged if you could write to me
 each to the other with in the subject.

Reminds us of our hopes of last year that you would honour us with a visit on your way northward. We shall never give up our hopes until we hear that you have recrossed the Atlantic, & then if we have not seen you, we shall feel sorry

Indeed. I have been much interested in the testimonies of distinguished Frenchmen, given in the Liberty Bell & in the last Weyers report by Miss A. W. Weston. Will you convey to her my cordial thanks for the copy of the Liberty Bell which she has kindly sent me & rendered doubly valuable by her autograph at the Commencement. The "Selections" from the writings of Garrison which accompanied the Anti-Slavery Journal this year is a most well timed publication, & sets Garrison's ~~Character~~ in its true light, which is all that is needed. I cannot express the pleasure with which I went thro' the Selections - many of which were well known to me already. But the passing of the Fugitive Slave Law ought to have convinced everyone that nothing which Garrison said on the pro-slavery character of his Countryman was exaggerated

My ~~sister~~ writes with me in very kind regards to all your party & in the hope that we shall be privileged to see you & I remain, my dear Mrs Chapman Yours with sincere regards Harnet Lupton.
